There is no doubt that it was only his fame as a poet and personal contacts that stopped him from being tried for sedition. Eighteen months later I came to be running Canongate. For most of his life he combined his writing with his job, first as a farmer and then as an excise officer. Refreshandtry.Loadingcomments...Troubleloading? He was the first novelist to deal with issues of the Industrial Revolution and he has been called the first political novelist in the English language. Let us do or die!
