Education There are two basic ways by which one may influence the formation of the minds and lives of. Religiousness means activity – an elementary setting oneself in relation to the Absolute; religion means passivity – taking upon oneself inherited laws. Whitney Watts marked it as to-read Apr 28, The two concepts together led Buber, he says, 'to the thought of thereahza-ti Both are evil in so far as they prevent the springing-up of the good, the socialist state in that it makes impossible even those remnants of true community which exist in the capitalist state, the capitalist state in that the relations between man and man are indirect and perverted, based on desire for exploitation rather than true togetherness. Tim Kavi rated it really liked it Feb 25, Yet the man who knows Thou must go out to meet the Thou and step into direct relation of realization are few in our time, which makes up for them with the doers and performers – those who act without being, who give what they do not have, who conquer where they have not fought. He grasps the ineffable through the creation of symbols, in signs and speech which reveal God to men for this age.
