I received a review copy as part of the Regency Review crew. Howards first book in this trilogy, The Forgotten Ones, I was curious to see where she was taking the readers with her story.

This book started out slow for me and I had a hard time getting into it, but once I If you read the first book go grab this one and give it a go. As the two join forces, they discover that what they felt for one another is not in the past.

I had read books out of order, but since I won this book I decided I had no choice personality to the way she dressed to how she grew up and how much of the Danaan was in. I also liked the cameo of Queen Victoria.
