Mormons pray to God the Father in the name of Jesus Christ, and answers to prayers come via the Holy Spirit, whose influence is felt both in the heart and the mind. They teach ethical and honest interactions in interpersonal relationships. Against the backdrop of modernity and now late modernity, Mormonism is based on claims of divine irruptions into current time and space.

The LDS Church does not formally recognize religious rites conducted by priests. The death of Joseph Smith was mourned by his followers, who believed him to be a prophet of God, but was cheered by his critics, who considered him a con man and a theocrat. Ability to live with such basic contradictions would seem to be a highly developed trait among the Arabs. Michael; Walters, Wesley P.

In more recent years the official posture toward gender role definitions has changed, however, the generally conservative church leadership, suspicious that the new scholarship was destructive of faith, transferred Arrington and his colleagues from the LDS Church Historical Department to Brigham Young University and even used ecclesiastical discipline against a handful of Mormon intellectuals in the early s. Certain approaches, such as anthropology, remain curiously underrepresented though not entirely absent in Mormon studies.
