I guess that is the point of reading, but I really felt the author could have done more effort in tidying the loose threads up. Mar 08, Michael MacConnell rated it liked it.

Characters were pretty bland.

Italternatesthestoryofan11thcenturyknightandamodernquestfortheUlt found the novel, in spite of a number of leaps of logic, so much more enjoyable than The Da Vinci Code to which it is obviously indebted for The Lazarus Vault from hidden bank vaults to secluded country estates and handicapped villains.
