Seriously what can I say but I really liked the relationship between Conrad and Tom, 3. This was denied to them, but Conrad and Tom will find a way to dramatically change their future, and still be .

Tom know that he find shim quite delightful for many years and it takes a big sea

Once they finally got down to it, I didn't feel as much of a connection as I wanted to. This was a quick read that actually had me shouting out at one point. The protagonists are likeable and believable, with all of By Honor Betrayed anxieties and caution that you would expect from a same sex pair in a world that condemned such things.

The ship's captain start to catch wind that there may be more to the relations
