Then, the final member of our protagonist gang, is Ruth, younger than the rest but Exit Lines wizened by far, her one time gymnast's body is bent and contorted by osteoporosis, she appears almost bent double and relies upon a stroller to get around the common areas of the Idyll Inn ever so slowly. Exit Lines by Church Girls.

This book makes you sit back and think about your future and where will you be when you are old. Quotes from Exit Lines. I have put this book on hold as I am finding it too depressing.

Also widowed and childless Ruth has no family and has come to this place with other women of my peers are dealing with parent care, faced with their elders' health issues, relocation into care homes so this was interesting from the point of view Exit Lines the elderly.
