Most societies in the world are today consumerist or moving towards consumerism. But this model is already in crisis. Consumerism is destroying our world.

The Crisis of Consumerist Society (The story of Stuff)
-[Multimedia-English videos]

ran an interesting article reporting that, rather than our stuff making us happy, it is us from others and also help us connect with larger society.

The problem with our society is not that it values material things too much but that it doesn't value them enough.

While the media is packed with material about consumer rights, there is seldom mention of workers' rights.
