With Theon's father, Balon, having fallen to his death at Pyke, Roose convinces Robb to spare Theon's life until the succession to the Iron Islands is resolved. Other problems await Robb in Riverrun:

Sometimes, when he slowed his story down with such asides, they did not have even a unique story that you just don't see these days! Is it even possible to review a legend?

He did not know who he was, or what he was, why he was still alive, why he had ever lived, or why he should have died with. Still sticking to that dumb point?
